Katherine Stabile's Pumpkin Muffins with Streusel Topping Wins Pumpkin Bread/Muffin Contest

SUMMIT, NJ, November 11, 2019 – Summit Downtown, Inc. (SDI) and Summit Farmers Market hosted the Pumpkin Bread/Muffin Contest last Sunday. The contest created a huge crowd and twenty entrants!

Judges Mary Cummins, Ester Mallach and Nancy Adams had the challenge of rating all the breads/muffins on their texture, appearance and taste. Mary Cummins is the owner and operator of downtown Summit's Marigolds Café. Ester Mallach is the owner of Ester's Treats, which has been at the Summit Farmers Market for many years. Nancy Adams, Executive Director of Summit Downtown, Inc. rounded out the judging panel.

Katherine Stabile of Freehold, NJ won 1st place for her Pumpkin Muffins with Streusel and Cinnamon Glaze. Kathy is stay at home Mom, who loves to bake and grew up in New Providence, NJ. Michelle Buckner's Pumpkin Bread recipe was awarded second place. Michelle is a Summit resident and an avid weekend baker. Becky Zacharias is also a Summit home baker, who loves all things pumpkin. Her Zacharias Family Mini-Pumpkin Muffins took home third place.

The three winning recipes can be found on summitdowntown.org. SDI Executive Director Nancy Adams said, "thanks to all the participants for entering their special bread/muffins, the judges for their time and sharing their expertise and the community for making the last event of the season so successful."

The market is run by Summit Downtown, Inc. (SDI) and is located in the Park & Shop Lot #2, at the corner of DeForest Avenue and Maple Street. It is open every Sunday through November 24 from 8AM-1PM. All downtown parking is free on Sundays, with convenient parking available on-street, in Park & Shop Lots 1 and 3 and the K lot, located behind CVS off of Maple Street.
