Sunday was all about peaches at the Summit Farmers Market

SUMMIT, N.J., August 6, 2015 – As a part of the Summit Farmers Market's 20th Anniversary Sunday Funday celebrations, Summit Downtown, Inc. hosted a Peach Dish Contest at the Summit Farmers Market on August 2. All amateur cooks were invited to bring their best homemade dish featuring peaches to the market to be judged. Five contestants brought their delicious entries to the market. Although both sweet and savory dishes were allowed, all the contestants opted for the sweeter side of things.

Diane Gallo, co-founder of the Summit Farmers Market joined Kim Osterhoudt and Jeanny Race as the judges for this contest. Kim is the founder and owner of Jams by Kim and has recently made news as a winner of the American Small Business Championship. Jeanny Race is known for her deliciously healthy creations from Jeanny's Harvest Kitchen, featuring fresh produce grown at Race Farm.

The contest was extremely close, and the judges agreed all the entrees were delicious. First place was awarded to Greg Shaffer who prepared Peach Cobbler Pies. These muffin-sized treats had a biscuit crust filled with perfectly baked peaches topped with a drizzle of icing. Second place was awarded to New Providence resident Joanne Butler's beautiful peach tart. Third place honors went to a peach cake made by Jozi Coates, who won first place at last month's Blueberry Pie Contest. All three winners are regular Summit Farmers Market shoppers who will definitely enjoy their prize: Fun Money to be spent at the market. Recipes from the contest winners are available on summitfarmersmarket.com.

The next Sunday Funday activity will be a Tomato Cooking Demonstration on September 6. The market is located in Park & Shop Lot No. 2, at the corner of DeForest Avenue and Maple Street. The market is open from 8AM-1PM every Sunday, May 10 through November 22.
