Homestyle Family Recipe Wins First Annual Apple Pie Contest at Summit Farmers Market

SUMMIT, NJ, October 8, 2015 – As a part of the Summit Farmers Market’s 20th Anniversary Sunday Funday celebrations, Summit Downtown, Inc. hosted an Apple Pie Contest at the Summit Farmers Market on October 4. All amateur bakers were invited to bring their best homemade apple pie to the market to be judged. Eight contestants brought their delicious entries to the market.

Mayor Ellen Dickson joined Bob Conway and Ester Mallach for the difficult task of judging the pies on their crust, filling, and appearance. Bob Conway and Ester Mallach are the owners, founders and bakers for the two bakeries at the Summit Farmers Market: Brownie Points Bakery and Ester’s Treats, respectively.

After deliberating, the judges crowned Berkeley Heights resident Carol Yuch the 1st prize winner. Carol’s classic rendition was made from her mother’s recipe, and she promises “it’s the best.” Second place went to a beautiful pie decorated with cutouts of leaves baked by Nicole Renna, sister of GreatHouse owner, Bonny Neiman. Third place was awarded to a butter rum apple pie baked by Summit High School freshman, Jozi Coates. Jozi has placed in all three contests held at the Summit Farmers Market this year. Both winners graciously shared their recipes, which can be viewed on the Summit Farmers Market website, summitfarmersmarket.com.

The final Sunday Funday activity of the year will be Pumpkin Painting, held at 11AM on October 25. The market is located in Park & Shop Lot No. 2, at the corner of DeForest Avenue and Maple Street and is open from 8AM-1PM every Sunday, May 10 through November 22.
