Downtown Stakeholders Meeting and Guest Speaker at the Summit Free Public Library (75 Maple Street), October 24, 08:30am.

SUMMIT, NJ, October 19, 2018 – Summit Downtown, Inc. (SDI) will hold its third and final Stakeholders Meeting for 2018 at 08:30am on October 24. The Summit Free Public Library is graciously hosting the meeting, and all downtown property owners, business owners, and business employees are invited to attend.

Attendees will enjoy networking and a continental breakfast beginning at 08:30am. The program will begin at 08:45am with SDI updates including holiday events and promotions, the new Summit Gift Card and more. At 09:00am there will be a presentation by guest speaker Irlana Ho.

Irlana Ho, People & Culture expert and entrepreneur with over 15 years of small business and corporate experience will discuss how business leaders can gain a competitive advantage by unlocking the full potential of their people to drive innovation and performance. Irlana's areas of expertise include Retail, International Business, Organizational Effectiveness and Change Management. She is founder of Culture Pivot, a consultancy focused on Global Organizational Development, Diversity and Intercultural Management. She holds a B.A. in Labor Management & Relations from the University of Toronto, Ontario, Canada and a M.A. in Industrial Relations from Laval University, Quebec, Canada.

Complimentary refreshments will be provided, so RSVPs are appreciated at <https://tinyurl.com/yanpubug>. For more information, please call the SDI office at 908-277-6100.
